

Young Members' Officer Report

Due to continued covid restriction little has happened in the Young Members' sphere of UNISON over the last year. As Young Members' Officer I have continued to take an active role within the regional YM structure and will continue to do so until aging out later in the year. On a national level I took part in the first national young members conference in the role of chair of the Standing Orders Committee.

Mike Daniell

Young Members' Officer